

The India Research Group Conference

June 18, 2015

Venue: Paris School of Economics, Jourdan

8h45: Coffee and Presentation of the group

9h15: Rohini Somanathan, Delhi School of Economics:
Caste connections and government transfers: The Mahadalits of Bihar
Discussant: Aditi Dimri, Université Catholique de Louvain & PSE

10h15: Jules Naudet, Centre de Sciences Humaines:
The idea of equality as relation in India
Discussant: Véronique Gille, Université Catholique de Louvain

11h: Jean Joseph Boillot, CEPII:
India's development model: a Hirschmanian tentative approach
Discussant: Lucie Gadenne, University College of London

12h: Panel Discussion on Development policy in India: On the path to shared prosperity?
Chair: Daniel Cohen, Paris School of Economics
Jean-Joseph Boillot, CEPII
Maitreesh Ghatak, London School of Economics
Shaibal Gupta, Founder Member Secretary of the Asian Development Research Institute
Lakshmi Iyer, Harvard Business School
Christophe Jaffrelot, CERI- Sciences Po

14h: Claude Markovits, CNRS:
Some reflections on Indian capital in the long term
Discussant: Guilhem Cassan, University of Namur

15h15: Aminah Mohammad-Arif, CNRS:
Muslims in Bangalore: A Privileged Minority?
Discussant: Oliver Vanden Eynde, Paris School of Economics

16h: Lakshmi Iyer, Harvard Business School:
Politician preferences and gender outcomes: evidence from India
Discussant: Gilles Vernier, Ashoka University

For registration or more information, please contact us at:
india-research-group@googlegroups.com